

TRAIN : British Pullman

JOURNEY : The Golden Age of Travel on the British Pullman

Journey Duration : Scenic Day Trips

Day to Day Itinerary

As our aptly dressed steward escorts you through the lounge to your seat, you'll notice the lavish art deco details — polished marquetry and plush textiles, brass luggage racks and silken lampshades. A champagne reception quickly ensues, served in bespoke glassware, as we head off towards the Kentish countryside. As you enjoy the vintage comforts and remarkable vistas, a delicious five-course feast crafted from delicious seasonal ingredients will be served, complemented by our sommelier's choice of wines.

The primary route travels via Canterbury towards the cliffs of Dover, passing through historic towns and vivid country landscapes. A scheduled part of the itinerary includes a moment off board to take in live entertainment performed by vibrant artists , and experience local delicacies. The train begins its journey back via Folkestone and Paddock Wood, with coffee served as we approach London's Victoria Station.
