Day to Day Itinerary

Day 1 Seville to Jerez

Following check-in from 10:00, and whilst your luggage is being taken to the train, you have time to wander Seville before returning to the hotel for lunch. The capital of Andalusia, Seville boasts the most extensive historic city centre in Spain, home to the Gothic Cathedral with its bell tower named Giralda, the Royal Alcazar and the General Archive of the Indies.

After lunch there is a panoramic tour of the city, taking us across the famous Plaza de España before boarding the Tren Al Andalus. There follow welcome cocktails onboard after which you are shown to your suite. Dinner on board as we head to Jerez for the night.

Day 2 Jerez to Cádiz

This second day of the Al Andalus 2023 Train tour, after replenishing our strength with a good breakfast served on board, we will travel by luxury bus to Cadiz. We will visit the attractions of the historic center of this ancient city, the oldest in the western world. Then we will have free time to explore the city on our own and get drunk on its Cadiz charm.

We will get back on the bus to return to the train and enjoy a delicious lunch prepared by our chef. We will have time to enjoy the beautiful Belle Epoque style rooms before dinner time in a restaurant in Jerez.

The train will remain at the station and we'll overnight in Jerez.

Day 3 Jerez to Ronda

After breakfast, we will board the bus that will take us to a famous Sherry winery. There we will learn the secrets of making this renowned drink with Denomination of Origin. In addition, we will taste the best specimens that the winery produces. We will finish the visit in Jerez attending the equestrian show "How the Andalusian Horses Dance".

We will return to the Al Andalus Train to head for the beautiful White Village of Ronda. Along the way, we'll enjoy a hearty lunch in the onboard dining cars.

We will live up the afternoon with performances and shows in the train's luxurious lounge cars. Then we will go by bus to have dinner in a restaurant in Ronda.

The train will stop in Ronda to spend the night in this town.

Day 4 Ronda to Cordoba

After breakfast we will get ready to tour the old city of Ronda, which is part of the route of the beautiful White Villages. Our guide will take you through the Alameda del Tajo, the New Bridge and the Old Bridge. You will also see the oldest bullring in Spain, the Palacio Mondragón, among other emblematic places. You will have free time to explore Ronda freely and admire the beautiful views of the Serranía.

Back on board the luxurious Al Andalus Train, we will make the journey to Cordoba, while we taste a select meal.

We will spend the night in Cordoba.

Day 5 Cordoba-Ubeda-Baeza-Granada

Whilst having breakfast, we arrive in Linares-Baeza, from where the coach travel through the countryside covered with over 70 million olive trees, to the Olive Oil Museum for a guided visit of this fascinating industry. Then we go to historic Baeza, a city that dates back to the Moorish occupation and is the seat of the International University of Andalucía. Lunch in Úbeda, with its beautiful hand-carved stone and whitewashed facades, which one can wander around after lunch. Returning to the train, dinner is served during the journey to Cordoba. Overnight in Cordoba.

Day 6 Granada

This will be a very special day! We will see inside the most visited place in Spain: The Alhambra, a World Heritage Site. We will visit the beautiful palaces and gardens of this fortress that was once the home of sultans and kings. Take the opportunity to take photos in the spectacular Nasrid Palaces and its Lions courtyards. And relax strolling through the fabulous gardens and fountains of the Generalife Palace.

In the afternoon there will be free time to explore the center of Granada on your own. We will round off the night with dinner at a local restaurant, where you will taste the most select dishes of Granada cuisine.

Day 7 Granada to Malaga

On the last day of the Al Andalus Train route, after enjoying breakfast on board, we will say goodbye to the train and its crew to take the coach to Malaga, where we will visit its Alcazaba, palatial fortification of the Muslim era.

Free time and lunch at the Hotel AC by Marriot Málaga Palacio, where the trip will end around 5:00 p.m.
