

Step onto a legend in motion for an overnight adventure between Venice and London, taking in Europe's most picturesque sights from a seat of unrivalled luxury. Travel from the City of Water to Paris aboard the Venice Simplon-Orient-Express, before connecting to a Eurostar service to London.

Day 1: Venice

Board the train at Venice Santa Lucia station and, once settled, enjoy a lavish three-course lunch in one of our opulent dining cars. Spend the afternoon relaxing in the comfort of your private cabin with high tea, gazing at Europe as it unfolds before you.

Later, a decadent four-course dinner is prepared on board by our skilled chefs. After you may wish to carouse in the Bar Car, listening to our resident pianist as champagne flows freely. When ready, retire to your suite or cabin, which you'll find has been transformed into a cosy boudoir.

Day 2: London

Wake to a whole new landscape outside your window. The following morning, breakfast is served in your cabin at a time to suit you.

Prepare to disembark as the train pulls into Paris Gare de l'Est. Eurostar services operate from Paris Gare du Nord.
